P-TA Officers Installed For 1977-78 School Year

Questionnaires have been sent to each child's home for input about program suggestions. The P-TA executive board appreciates your response.

Local Scouts Attend Camporee

On May 14 and 15 approximately 1500 Boy Scouts and Scouters participated in the first Blue Ridge Mountain Council Camporee at Staunton River State Park near Scottsburg, Va.

Registration was a 8 a.m. Saturday morning. After setting up campsites, special events and demonstrations were held until 11 a.m. At this time the opening ceremony was held. During the afternoon, patrols competed in 12 skill events. A council campfire was held Saturday night with songs, fun, and recognition for all troops and patrols who had earned the All Out for Scouting Awards which they had been working on for the past several months. Church services Sunday morning was followed by the closing ceremony.

Fifteen scouts and Scoutmaster Danny Garrett attended the camporee from Troop 546 in Appomattox. Each Patrol; the Wolves, the Cherokees, and the Flaming Arrows were presented the All Out for Scouting Patrol Awards. The troop was presented the All Out for Scouting Troop Award and the Scoutmaster was presented the All Out for Scouting Scoutmaster Award. In addition the Flaming Arrow Patrol earned a 4th place ribbon in the log sawing and rolling competition.

Those attending from Troop 546 were: Kurt Greenbaum, Lynn Martin, James Vaughn, David Totty, David Vaughn, Walter Higgenbotham, Ray Goode, Bentley Nash, Larry Johnson, Dennis Guill, Mike Carmody, Mike Mundy, Billy Hammock, Mark Wooten and Eric Moon.

Transportation was provided by Dave Greenbaum and Al Carmody.

IN MEMORIAM 1776 - 1977

This Memorial Day, Taps will sound across countless graves throught the nation as it pauses to honor those men and women who have given their lives in the service of their country. Since the days of our forefathers, so many brave Americans have made the ultimate sacrifice in order to preserve our way of life. Monday, we will be honoring their memory with many lasting tributes. But the most lasting tribute of all, is the dedication of all Americans to the goal of peace. Let us remember the departed most fittingly by achieving this peace.

MRS. EYE'S 4-H Class

The last meeting of the year was held on May 10, 1977.

The meeting was called to order by our President, Blair Smith. The minutes were read by our secretary, Terri Nash. After the pledge of allegiance and 4-H pledge were said, we played a game.

The meeting was then turned over to Mr. Sweet. He reminded us of our projects that are to be handed in by September. Also about the walk-a-thon slated for May 21st and of the milk poster coming up.

Everyone is excited about the 4-H dog show which will be held on May 31st, at 7:00 P.M. Mr. Jordon showed us slides that were taken last year of the dog show.

The meeting was then adjourned.

Mrs. Eye's 6th grade 4-H class would like to take this opportunity to thank Mr. Sweet, Mr. Jordon, The Times-Virginian and all others who have helped make this a successful year.

Hope to see you at 4-H camp on August 1-5th!

Dawn Pitsenbrger, reporter

Completes Basic Training

SAN ANTONIO - Airman James M. Reynolds, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Reynolds of Rt. 1, Appomattox, Va., has graduated at Lackland AFB, Tex., from Air Force basic training.

The airman, who is remaining at Lackland for specialized training in the security police field, studied the Air Force mission, organization and customs and received special instruction in human relations. Completion of this training earned the individual credits towards an associate in applied science degree through the Community College of the Air Force.

Airman Reynolds is a 1975 graduate of Fort Defiance (Va.) High School. His wife, Cheryl, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Elliott of Rt. 5, Lynchburg.

Cub Scout Pack 546

The monthly pack meeting of Pack 546 was held on Thursday evening, May 19th., at the United Memorial Methodist Church.

Following opening ceremonies, three boys were inducted into the Weblos Den, Eduardo Garcia, Hunter Towns, and Roger Steinkamp, recieved their colors and neckerchiefs. Webelos is the highest rank in Cub Scouting, and is preparatory to the Boy Scout Program.

Other advancement awards were given following the Webelos Ceremony. Rev. Ed Leonard, Cubmaster, presented Webelos activity awards to Jack Williams, who received the Athlete, Citizen, and Artist awards. Both Gary Long and Kenneth Mayberry earned their Athlete award, but were not there for presentation.

Den Leaders Hazel May/ berry and Linda Thoma introduced a skit "Benefits of the Caterpillar" which was presented by Warren Thoma, Steven Thoma, and Steven Greenbaum. After the laughter and applause subsided all Cub Scouts participated in a crab race. And then parents participated with Cubs in games.

Tom Morgan, district representative, spoke to the gathering about summer activities will be sponsored by the Council. These activities include a Webelos Over-nighter Fishing Derby, Lynchburg Mets Night, Cub Day Camp. Participation in one event each summer month will qualify the Pack for the National Summertime Award.

On Saturday, May 22nd, the blue Ridge Mountains Council sponsored a Cub Scout Olympics, held at the Lynchburg College. Five boys from Appomattox Pack 546 participated in these events. These boys did their best: Hunter Towns, Jack Williams, Eduardo Garcia, Steven Greenbaum, and Roger Steinkamp.

A total of 171 boys competed in the Cub Olympics this year.
